NOTICE OF OBJECTION

I, Michaelene Jo Formanack, Complainant, of 'Bill in Equity' Michaelene Jo Formanack vs Rosie Rios, Defendant, before the Honorable James D. Peterson, object to the following:

1. Objection, it was not my intent and Complainant sets jurisdiction, that said jurisdiction of a cv number as "Civil I" subject to FRCP would be put on my Bill in Equity. It does not apply to a constitutionally defined citizen of the United States, which I am, on the grounds of lacking subject matter jurisdiction; what ought to have been done to fulfill, to impute, my intent. I am a Private Citizen of the United States, an American National, which is a matter of incontrovertible fact, as proven by my Affidavit of Status filed in Lamar County, GA. Exhibit 1

   It was my intent to be in chancery practice. I am entitled to chancery practice based on the merits of my initial filing of my Affidavit of Status.

   I am an American National not subject to the FRCP. I am one of the Posterity. I am not coming pro se but as sui juris. Therefore, I object to the use of a cv number for my case that is, in fact, a civilian complaint. It is not a civil complaint.

   Show cause why, Complainant's, Bill in Equity, should be issued a cv number, or be it resolved a new case number reflecting proper status; a proper equity number be issued.

Witnessed by my hand and sealed this 30th day of December, 2014.
